

SIERRA SAGE WOMEN'S GOLF CLUB

Meeting of October 8, 2019

Meeting called to order at at 2:05 PM by President Judy Counter. Forty-three ladies enjoyed a delicious lunch of French dip sandwiches, sweet potato fries and Asian cole slaw. Thanks to Debbie and Renae in the kitchen and Carolyn for arranging the lunch. Desserts were provided by club members. Judy welcomed everyone and thanked the members, Sierra Sage staff and the current board members for a great season.

The following slate of officers was presented for vote.

President - Judy Counter; VP - Sherry Key; Secretary - Mary Kliwer; Treasurer - Patty Wampler; Tournament - Debbie Schwoyer; Rules - Sandra Rissone; High Sierra Team Play - Carolyn Henrickson and Pam Oliveri; Awards - Diane Henderson; Liaison to the pro shop - Sarah Boyle. The vote for the 2020 board was unanimous.

Sarah explained that there would be no more cash payouts as it violates USGA rules. It will be handled electronically. Sarah will set up a system to use Sierra Sage gift cards which can be used in the pro shop, golf fees, restaurant and bar. Sarah handed out money that had not been picked up over the season.

Tournament chair Debbie Schwoyer announced that there will be a new Worldwide Handicap System starting January 1, 2020. Details will follow.

High Sierra Team Play: Debbie thanked the members who played team play. Sierra Sage ended up 18th out of 19. Carolyn Henrikson and Pam Oliveri will take over as team play captains for 2020.

Debbie announced the winners of eclectic, results of today's tournament, and birdie awards. All results will be available on the Sierra Sage website in a couple of days. Most improved was April Hackett with handicap 1-25 and Elise Hansen with handicap 26+.

Meeting adjourned at 2:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Kliwer, Secretary

